

初二目标听力练习

1. [audio=liuyu000009.mp3]

(1) Who are the two speakers?

A. Teacher and student.

B. Husband and wife.

C. Shopkeeper and customer.

(2) What does the man want to buy for his daughter?

A. A skirt.

B. A sweater.

C. A coat.

2. [audio=liuyu000856.mp3]

(1) _____

A. Play football.

B. On foot.

C. In the gym.

(2) _____

A. Two days.

B. Once a week.

C. Three times.

(3) _____

A. Books.

B. Toys.

C. Math.

(4) _____

A. On Sunday

B. On the farm.

C. It's a town house.

(5) _____

A. Yes, there are.

B. No, I can't.

C. Yes, I do.

3. [audio=3.mp3]

(1) The speaker doesn't like dogs.

A. T

B. F

(2) He prefers animals to people.

A. T

B. F

(3) He has never been to a zoo.

A. T

B. F

(4) He had a pet dog when he was younger.

A. T

B. F

(5) He wasn't happy when his pet became ill.

A. T

B. F

(6) He never played with his pet.

A. T

B. F

(7) He wanted to have another pet.

A. T B. F

(8) His son would like a pet.

A. T B. F

(9) He doesn't want an exotic pet.

A. T B. F

(10) He thinks that people should not buy pets from shops.

A. T B. F

4. [audio=3.mp3]

(1) What's the date today?

A. June 19th. B. June 20th. C. June 21st.

(2) What will Jack do for his dad?

A. Sing a song. B. Buy a cake. C. Make a cake.

(3) What advice does the teacher give to the boy?

A. How to make a talk. B. Where to get hamburgers.

C. What to do in KFC.

(4) The teacher encourages the boy to ____.

A. practice his listening B. speak in the public

C. talk to foreigners

(5) What did the boy do at KFC one day?

A. He discussed a problem with his teacher.

B. He talked with a foreigner in easy English.

C. He bought some hamburgers for his friends.

(6)

A Visit to the City Museum
Start time and place	At 6 a.m. outside the school gate
The visit	On the ground floor, the introduction of old 7
	On the first floor, the invention 8
	On the fourth floor, 9 were made 50 years ago
The cost	$ 10

(7)

A Visit to the City Museum
Start time and place	At 6 a.m. outside the school gate
The visit	On the ground floor, the introduction of old 7
	On the first floor, the invention 8
	On the fourth floor, 9 were made 50 years ago
The cost	$ 10

(8)

A Visit to the City Museum
Start time and place	At 6 a.m. outside the school gate
The visit	On the ground floor, the introduction of old 7
	On the first floor, the invention 8
	On the fourth floor, 9 were made 50 years ago
The cost	$ 10

(9)

A Visit to the City Museum
Start time and place	At 6 a.m. outside the school gate
The visit	On the ground floor, the introduction of old 7
	On the first floor, the invention 8
	On the fourth floor, 9 were made 50 years ago
The cost	$ 10

(10)

A Visit to the City Museum
Start time and place	At 6 a.m. outside the school gate
The visit	On the ground floor, the introduction of old 7
	On the first floor, the invention 8
	On the fourth floor, 9 were made 50 years ago
The cost	$ 10

参考答案

1. (1) 【答案】 C

【解析】 W: May I help you, sir? M: Yes. I' m looking for a coat for my daughter. W: These coats are for boys. This way, please. M: Well, that blue coat is nice. May I have a look at it? W: Sure, here you are. M: How much is it? W: 150 Yuan. M: That's a bit expensive. Do you have a cheaper one? W: The red one is cheaper. It's 80 Yuan. M: OK. I' ll have it. Thank you. W: You are welcome.

1. (2) 【答案】 C

【解析】 W: May I help you, sir? M: Yes. I' m looking for a coat for my daughter. W: These coats are for boys. This way, please. M: Well, that blue coat is nice. May I have a look at it? W: Sure, here you are. M: How much is it? W: 150 Yuan. M: That's a bit expensive. Do you have a cheaper one? W: The red one is cheaper. It's 80 Yuan. M: OK. I' ll have it. Thank you. W: You are welcome.

2. (1) 【答案】 A

【解析】 What do you often do after school?

2. (2) 【答案】 B

【解析】 How often does Liu Mei go to the movie?

2. (3) 【答案】 C

【解析】 What's your favorite subject?

2. (4) 【答案】 C

【解析】 What's your home like?

2. (5) 【答案】 A

【解析】 Are there any keys on the desk?

3. (1) 【答案】 B

【解析】 It's not that I don't like dogs, more that I don't really have any strong feelings about them. Many people say that you're either a cat person or a dog person, I'm neither. I guess you could say that I'm a people person. I'm certainly not an animal person. They're OK, but I'd never spend the day at the zoo — not when there are so many other things to do. I went as a kid, but not now. People say that having animals brings all kinds of benefits, but I'm not convinced. I guess I'm the wrong person to ask about animals. We did have a dog when I was a child, his name was Buster. But we relocated to America for a year and left it with our neighbours, who took care of it I'm sorry to say that I didn't really think about him while I was away. Anyway, it became ill and died shortly after we returned. Actually, I did feel upset about that. I remember when we came back from America — the dog was so happy to see me. He remembered me — maybe he even missed me. He was running around the house, so excited when he saw me after a year. Maybe that was his way of communicating with me. I really enjoyed playing with him, and taking him to run in the park. But after Buster died, my parents asked if we should get another dog. I said no. At that time, I was becoming more interested in playing with friends, or even playing on my computer. Buster was the last pet I ever had. I don't think it was an especially sad experience, but I can't imagine getting another pet. Maybe if my son wants one when he's older, but so far he's not shown any interest in animals. If we did ever get a pet, I'd like to think we'd find an abandoned cat or puppy, rm certainly not into exotic animals — certainly nothing poisonous, or too far removed from its natural environment like a snake or a reptile. Something fairly harmless, like a cat or a rabbit or something similar. There are already enough badly treated animals around without us encouraging pet shops to breed more. I realize that an animal raised in poor conditions might be more difficult to look after. But if we ever do get another pet, I'd like it to be one that really does need a new home.

根据材料中 “It's not that I don't like dogs, more that I don't really have any strong feelings about them” 可知，作者对狗没有感觉，并不是讨厌。故答案为 F。

3. (2) 【答案】B

【解析】It's not that I don't like dogs, more that I don't really have any strong feelings about them. Many people say that you're either a cat person or a dog person, I'm neither. I guess you could say that I'm a people person. I'm certainly not an animal person. They're OK, but I'd never spend the day at the zoo — not when there are so many other things to do. I went as a kid, but not now. People say that having animals brings all kinds of benefits, but I'm not convinced. I guess I'm the wrong person to ask about animals. We did have a dog when I was a child, his name was Buster. But we relocated to America for a year and left it with our neighbours, who took care of it I'm sorry to say that I didn't really think about him while I was away. Anyway, it became ill and died shortly after we returned. Actually, I did feel upset about that. I remember when we came back from America — the dog was so happy to see me. He remembered me — maybe he even missed me. He was running around the house, so excited when he saw me after a year. Maybe that was his way of communicating with me. I really enjoyed playing with him, and taking him to run in the park. But after Buster died, my parents asked if we should get another dog. I said no. At that time, I was becoming more interested in playing with friends, or even playing on my computer. Buster was the last pet I ever had. I don't think it was an especially sad experience, but I can't imagine getting another pet. Maybe if my son wants one when he's older, but so far he's not shown any interest in animals. If we did ever get a pet, I'd like to think we'd find an abandoned cat or puppy, rm certainly not into exotic animals — certainly nothing poisonous, or too far removed from its natural environment like a snake or a reptile. Something fairly harmless, like a cat or a rabbit or something similar. There are already enough badly treated animals around without us encouraging pet shops to breed more. I realize that an animal raised in poor conditions might be more difficult to look after. But if we ever do get another pet, I'd like it to be one that really does need a new home.

根据材料中 “I'm certainly not an animal person.” 可知，我并不是一个喜欢动物的人。故答案为 F。

3. (3) 【答案】B

【解析】It's not that I don't like dogs, more that I don't really have any strong feelings about them. Many people say that you're either a cat person or a dog person, I'm neither. I guess you could say that I'm a people person. I'm certainly not an animal person. They're OK, but I'd never spend the day at the zoo — not when there are so many other things to do. I went as a kid, but not now. People say that having animals brings all kinds of benefits, but I'm not convinced. I guess I'm the wrong person to ask about animals. We did have a dog when I was a child, his name was Buster. But we relocated to America for a year and left it with our neighbours, who took care of it I'm sorry to say that I didn't really think about him while I was away. Anyway, it became ill and died shortly after we returned. Actually, I did feel upset about that. I remember when we came back from America — the dog was so happy to see me. He remembered me — maybe he even missed me. He was running around the house, so excited when he saw me after a year. Maybe that was his way of communicating with me. I really enjoyed playing with him, and taking him to run in the park. But after Buster died, my parents asked if we should get another dog. I said no. At that time, I was becoming more interested in playing with friends, or even playing on my computer. Buster was the last pet I ever had. I don't think it was an especially sad experience, but I can't imagine getting another pet. Maybe if my son wants one when he's older, but so far he's not shown any interest in animals. If we did ever get a pet, I'd like to think we'd find an abandoned cat or puppy, I'm certainly not into exotic animals — certainly nothing poisonous, or too far removed from its natural environment like a snake or a reptile. Something fairly harmless, like a cat or a rabbit or something similar. There are already enough badly treated animals around without us encouraging pet shops to breed more. I realize that an animal raised in poor conditions might be more difficult to look after. But if we ever do get another pet, I'd like it to be one that really does need a new home.

根据材料中 “They're OK, but I'd never spend the day at the zoo — not when there are so many other things to do. I went as a kid, but not now. ” 可知，作者小时候去过动物园。故答案为 F。

3. (4) 【答案】A

【解析】It's not that I don't like dogs, more that I don't really have any strong feelings about them. Many people say that you're either a cat person or a dog person, I'm neither. I guess you could say that I'm a people person. I'm certainly not an animal person. They're OK, but I'd never spend the day at the zoo — not when there are so many other things to do. I went as a kid, but not now. People say that having animals brings all kinds of benefits, but I'm not convinced. I guess I'm the wrong person to ask about animals. We did have a dog when I was a child, his name was Buster. But we relocated to America for a year and left it with our neighbours, who took care of it I'm sorry to say that I didn't really think about him while I was away. Anyway, it became ill and died shortly after we returned. Actually, I did feel upset about that. I remember when we came back from America — the dog was so happy to see me. He remembered me — maybe he even missed me. He was running around the house, so excited when he saw me after a year. Maybe that was his way of communicating with me. I really enjoyed playing with him, and taking him to run in the park. But after Buster died, my parents asked if we should get another dog. I said no. At that time, I was becoming more interested in playing with friends, or even playing on my computer. Buster was the last pet I ever had. I don't think it was an especially sad experience, but I can't imagine getting another pet. Maybe if my son wants one when he's older, but so far he's not shown any interest in animals. If we did ever get a pet, I'd like to think we'd find an abandoned cat or puppy, rm certainly not into exotic animals — certainly nothing poisonous, or too far removed from its natural environment like a snake or a reptile. Something fairly harmless, like a cat or a rabbit or something similar. There are already enough badly treated animals around without us encouraging pet shops to breed more. I realize that an animal raised in poor conditions might be more difficult to look after. But if we ever do get another pet, I'd like it to be one that really does need a new home.

根据材料中 “We did have a dog when I was a child, his name was Buster.” 可知，作者小时候有一只狗。故答案为 T。

3. (5) 【答案】A

【解析】It's not that I don't like dogs, more that I don't really have any strong feelings about them. Many people say that you're either a cat person or a dog person, I'm neither. I guess you could say that I'm a people person. I'm certainly not an animal person. They're OK, but I'd never spend the day at the zoo — not when there are so many other things to do. I went as a kid, but not now. People say that having animals brings all kinds of benefits, but I'm not convinced. I guess I'm the wrong person to ask about animals. We did have a dog when I was a child, his name was Buster. But we relocated to America for a year and left it with our neighbours, who took care of it I'm sorry to say that I didn't really think about him while I was away. Anyway, it became ill and died shortly after we returned. Actually, I did feel upset about that. I remember when we came back from America — the dog was so happy to see me. He remembered me — maybe he even missed me. He was running around the house, so excited when he saw me after a year. Maybe that was his way of communicating with me. I really enjoyed playing with him, and taking him to run in the park. But after Buster died, my parents asked if we should get another dog. I said no. At that time, I was becoming more interested in playing with friends, or even playing on my computer. Buster was the last pet I ever had. I don't think it was an especially sad experience, but I can't imagine getting another pet. Maybe if my son wants one when he's older, but so far he's not shown any interest in animals. If we did ever get a pet, I'd like to think we'd find an abandoned cat or puppy, rm certainly not into exotic animals — certainly nothing poisonous, or too far removed from its natural environment like a snake or a reptile. Something fairly harmless, like a cat or a rabbit or something similar. There are already enough badly treated animals around without us encouraging pet shops to breed more. I realize that an animal raised in poor conditions might be more difficult to look after. But if we ever do get another pet, I'd like it to be one that really does need a new home.

根据材料中 “Anyway, it became ill and died shortly after we returned. Actually, I did feel upset about that.” 可知，小狗生病我感到不开心。故答案为 T。

3. (6) 【答案】B

【解析】It's not that I don't like dogs, more that I don't really have any strong feelings about them. Many people say that you're either a cat person or a dog person, I'm neither. I guess you could say that I'm a people person. I'm certainly not an animal person. They're OK, but I'd never spend the day at the zoo — not when there are so many other things to do. I went as a kid, but not now. People say that having animals brings all kinds of benefits, but I'm not convinced. I guess I'm the wrong person to ask about animals. We did have a dog when I was a child, his name was Buster. But we relocated to America for a year and left it with our neighbours, who took care of it I'm sorry to say that I didn't really think about him while I was away. Anyway, it became ill and died shortly after we returned. Actually, I did feel upset about that. I remember when we came back from America — the dog was so happy to see me. He remembered me — maybe he even missed me. He was running around the house, so excited when he saw me after a year. Maybe that was his way of communicating with me. I really enjoyed playing with him, and taking him to run in the park. But after Buster died, my parents asked if we should get another dog. I said no. At that time, I was becoming more interested in playing with friends, or even playing on my computer. Buster was the last pet I ever had. I don't think it was an especially sad experience, but I can't imagine getting another pet. Maybe if my son wants one when he's older, but so far he's not shown any interest in animals. If we did ever get a pet, I'd like to think we'd find an abandoned cat or puppy, I'm certainly not into exotic animals — certainly nothing poisonous, or too far removed from its natural environment like a snake or a reptile. Something fairly harmless, like a cat or a rabbit or something similar. There are already enough badly treated animals around without us encouraging pet shops to breed more. I realize that an animal raised in poor conditions might be more difficult to look after. But if we ever do get another pet, I'd like it to be one that really does need a new home.

根据材料中 “I really enjoyed playing with him, and taking him to run in the park.” 可知，我有跟宠物一起玩。故答案为 F。

3. (7) 【答案】B

【解析】It's not that I don't like dogs, more that I don't really have any strong feelings about them. Many people say that you're either a cat person or a dog person, I'm neither. I guess you could say that I'm a people person. I'm certainly not an animal person. They're OK, but I'd never spend the day at the zoo — not when there are so many other things to do. I went as a kid, but not now.

People say that having animals brings all kinds of benefits, but I'm not convinced. I guess I'm the wrong person to ask about animals. We did have a dog when I was a child, his name was Buster. But we relocated to America for a year and left it with our neighbours, who took care of it I'm sorry to say that I didn't really think about him while I was away. Anyway, it became ill and died shortly after we returned. Actually, I did feel upset about that. I remember when we came back from America — the dog was so happy to see me. He remembered me — maybe he even missed me. He was running around the house, so excited when he saw me after a year. Maybe that was his way of communicating with me. I really enjoyed playing with him, and taking him to run in the park. But after Buster died, my parents asked if we should get another dog. I said no. At that time, I was becoming more interested in playing with friends, or even playing on my computer. Buster was the last pet I ever had. I don't think it was an especially sad experience, but I can't imagine getting another pet. Maybe if my son wants one when he's older, but so far he's not shown any interest in animals. If we did ever get a pet, I'd like to think we'd find an abandoned cat or puppy, not certainly not into exotic animals — certainly nothing poisonous, or too far removed from its natural environment like a snake or a reptile. Something fairly harmless, like a cat or a rabbit or something similar. There are already enough badly treated animals around without us encouraging pet shops to breed more. I realize that an animal raised in poor conditions might be more difficult to look after. But if we ever do get another pet, I'd like it to be one that really does need a new home.

根据材料中 “But after Buster died, my parents asked if we should get another dog. I said no.”

可知，小狗死后，我不想再养一只宠物了。故答案为 F。

3. (8) 【答案】B

【解析】It's not that I don't like dogs, more that I don't really have any strong feelings about them. Many people say that you're either a cat person or a dog person, I'm neither. I guess you could say that I'm a people person. I'm certainly not an animal person. They're OK, but I'd never spend the day at the zoo — not when there are so many other things to do. I went as a kid, but not now. People say that having animals brings all kinds of benefits, but I'm not convinced. I guess I'm the wrong person to ask about animals. We did have a dog when I was a child, his name was Buster. But we relocated to America for a year and left it with our neighbours, who took care of it I'm sorry to say that I didn't really think about him while I was away. Anyway, it became ill and died shortly after we returned. Actually, I did feel upset about that. I remember when we came back from America — the dog was so happy to see me. He remembered me — maybe he even missed me. He was running around the house, so excited when he saw me after a year. Maybe that was his way of communicating with me. I really enjoyed playing with him, and taking him to run in the park. But after Buster died, my parents asked if we should get another dog. I said no. At that time, I was becoming more interested in playing with friends, or even playing on my computer. Buster was the last pet I ever had. I don't think it was an especially sad experience, but I can't imagine getting another pet. Maybe if my son wants one when he's older, but so far he's not shown any interest in animals. If we did ever get a pet, I'd like to think we'd find an abandoned cat or puppy, rm certainly not into exotic animals — certainly nothing poisonous, or too far removed from its natural environment like a snake or a reptile. Something fairly harmless, like a cat or a rabbit or something similar. There are already enough badly treated animals around without us encouraging pet shops to breed more. I realize that an animal raised in poor conditions might be more difficult to look after. But if we ever do get another pet, I'd like it to be one that really does need a new home.

根据材料中 “Maybe if my son wants one when he's older, but so far he's not shown any interest in animals. ” 可知，作者的儿子到目前为止对动物不感兴趣。故答案为 F。

3. (9) 【答案】A

【解析】It's not that I don't like dogs, more that I don't really have any strong feelings about them. Many people say that you're either a cat person or a dog person, I'm neither. I guess you could say that I'm a people person. I'm certainly not an animal person. They're OK, but I'd never spend the day at the zoo — not when there are so many other things to do. I went as a kid, but not now. People say that having animals brings all kinds of benefits, but I'm not convinced. I guess I'm the wrong person to ask about animals. We did have a dog when I was a child, his name was Buster. But we relocated to America for a year and left it with our neighbours, who took care of it I'm sorry to say that I didn't really think about him while I was away. Anyway, it became ill and died shortly after we returned. Actually, I did feel upset about that. I remember when we came back from America — the dog was so happy to see me. He remembered me — maybe he even missed me. He was running around the house, so excited when he saw me after a year. Maybe that was his way of communicating with me. I really enjoyed playing with him, and taking him to run in the park. But after Buster died, my parents asked if we should get another dog. I said no. At that time, I was becoming more interested in playing with friends, or even playing on my computer. Buster was the last pet I ever had. I don't think it was an especially sad experience, but I can't imagine getting another pet. Maybe if my son wants one when he's older, but so far he's not shown any interest in animals. If we did ever get a pet, I'd like to think we'd find an abandoned cat or puppy, rm certainly not into exotic animals — certainly nothing poisonous, or too far removed from its natural environment like a snake or a reptile. Something fairly harmless, like a cat or a rabbit or something similar. There are already enough badly treated animals around without us encouraging pet shops to breed more. I realize that an animal raised in poor conditions might be more difficult to look after. But if we ever do get another pet, I'd like it to be one that really does need a new home.

根据材料中 “If we did ever get a pet, I'd like to think we'd find an abandoned cat or puppy, I'm certainly not into exotic animals” 可知，我可能会收养流浪的猫或狗，不会是别的奇怪的动物。故答案为 T。

3. (10) 【答案】A

【解析】It's not that I don't like dogs, more that I don't really have any strong feelings about them. Many people say that you're either a cat person or a dog person, I'm neither. I guess you could say that I'm a people person. I'm certainly not an animal person. They're OK, but I'd never spend the day at the zoo — not when there are so many other things to do. I went as a kid, but not now. People say that having animals brings all kinds of benefits, but I'm not convinced. I guess I'm the wrong person to ask about animals. We did have a dog when I was a child, his name was Buster. But we relocated to America for a year and left it with our neighbours, who took care of it I'm sorry to say that I didn't really think about him while I was away. Anyway, it became ill and died shortly after we returned. Actually, I did feel upset about that. I remember when we came back from America — the dog was so happy to see me. He remembered me — maybe he even missed me. He was running around the house, so excited when he saw me after a year. Maybe that was his way of communicating with me. I really enjoyed playing with him, and taking him to run in the park. But after Buster died, my parents asked if we should get another dog. I said no. At that time, I was becoming more interested in playing with friends, or even playing on my computer. Buster was the last pet I ever had. I don't think it was an especially sad experience, but I can't imagine getting another pet. Maybe if my son wants one when he's older, but so far he's not shown any interest in animals. If we did ever get a pet, I'd like to think we'd find an abandoned cat or puppy, rm certainly not into exotic animals — certainly nothing poisonous, or too far removed from its natural environment like a snake or a reptile. Something fairly harmless, like a cat or a rabbit or something similar. There are already enough badly treated animals around without us encouraging pet shops to breed more. I realize that an animal raised in poor conditions might be more difficult to look after. But if we ever do get another pet, I'd like it to be one that really does need a new home.

根据材料中 “There are already enough badly treated animals around without us encouraging pet shops to breed more.” 可知，作者不建议人们从宠物店买宠物。故答案为 T。

4. (1) 【答案】B

【解析】W: Jack, what's the date today?

M: It's June the twentieth. Oh, it's Fathers' Day.

W: You are right. It's a day to show love and thanks to fathers.

M: Oh, yes. Then how shall we celebrate this special day?

W: Well, I've bought a shirt for Dad.

M: A shirt? What color?

W: Blue. That's Dad's favorite color.

M: That's a nice present. Err...What shall I do for Dad?

W: Why not make a cake?

M: Good idea. Let's start now.

4. (2) 【答案】C

【解析】W: Jack, what's the date today?

M: It's June the twentieth. Oh, it's Fathers' Day.

W: You are right. It's a day to show love and thanks to fathers.

M: Oh, yes. Then how shall we celebrate this special day?

W: Well, I've bought a shirt for Dad.

M: A shirt? What color?

W: Blue. That's Dad's favorite color.

M: That's a nice present. Err...What shall I do for Dad?

W: Why not make a cake?

M: Good idea. Let's start now.

4. (3) 【答案】A

【解析】M: Miss Li, may I ask you some questions?

W: No problem. Just go ahead.

M: What can I talk about with foreigners?

W: Try to ask questions you are interested in and listen carefully to the answers before you ask the next one.

M: Thank you, Miss Li. Last Sunday afternoon, while I was eating a chicken hamburger at KFC, I saw a foreigner right next to me.

W: Did you talk to him?

M: Yes. After we said hello to each other, I didn't know what to say. So I asked him to ask me a question.

W: That's good. What did he ask you about?

M: He asked me where I was from.

W: Then how did you answer?

M: I was really glad that I could understand him and answered with confidence. "I am from China."

W: Ha ha... How funny you are!

4. (4) 【答案】C

【解析】M: Miss Li, may I ask you some questions?

W: No problem. Just go ahead.

M: What can I talk about with foreigners?

W: Try to ask questions you are interested in and listen carefully to the answers before you ask the next one.

M: Thank you, Miss Li. Last Sunday afternoon, while I was eating a chicken hamburger at KFC, I saw a foreigner right next to me.

W: Did you talk to him?

M: Yes. After we said hello to each other, I didn't know what to say. So I asked him to ask me a question.

W: That's good. What did he ask you about?

M: He asked me where I was from.

W: Then how did you answer?

M: I was really glad that I could understand him and answered with confidence. "I am from China."

W: Ha ha... How funny you are!

4. (5) 【答案】B

【解析】M: Miss Li, may I ask you some questions?

W: No problem. Just go ahead.

M: What can I talk about with foreigners?

W: Try to ask questions you are interested in and listen carefully to the answers before you ask the next one.

M: Thank you, Miss Li. Last Sunday afternoon, while I was eating a chicken hamburger at KFC, I saw a foreigner right next to me.

W: Did you talk to him?

M: Yes. After we said hello to each other, I didn't know what to say. So I asked him to ask me a question.

W: That's good. What did he ask you about?

M: He asked me where I was from.

W: Then how did you answer?

M: I was really glad that I could understand him and answered with confidence. "I am from China."

W: Ha ha... How funny you are!

4. (6) 【答案】7

【解析】Attention, please. Boys and girls, we are going to visit the city museum tomorrow. I hope all of you can come. There are lots of interesting things about the cinema and how films are made. We will leave at 7:00 outside the school gate. Don't be late.

The visit starts on the ground floor. You can see the introductions of some old movies. Take as long as you want to look at everything, because we won't come back. Then you'll go upstairs to the first floor. After you arrive at the Inventors of the 20th Century Room, please read the invention stories and look at some modern inventions as well. When you finish, take the lift up to the fourth floor. On the fourth floor, you'll see how films were made fifty years ago. That will be very interesting.

What's next? Oh, yes, the cost. It'll be twenty-five dollars each. You'll need to write things down, so take a pencil and a notebook with you. We'll have lunch in the museum restaurant, so you needn't take any food with you. Well, I think that's everything.

4. (7) 【答案】 movies

【解析】 Attention, please. Boys and girls, we are going to visit the city museum tomorrow. I hope all of you can come. There are lots of interesting things about the cinema and how films are made. We will leave at 7:00 outside the school gate. Don't be late.

The visit starts on the ground floor. You can see the introductions of some old movies. Take as long as you want to look at everything, because we won't come back. Then you'll go upstairs to the first floor. After you arrive at the Inventors of the 20th Century Room, please read the invention stories and look at some modern inventions as well. When you finish, take the lift up to the fourth floor. On the fourth floor, you'll see how films were made fifty years ago. That will be very interesting.

What's next? Oh, yes, the cost. It'll be twenty-five dollars each. You'll need to write things down, so take a pencil and a notebook with you. We'll have lunch in the museum restaurant, so you needn't take any food with you. Well, I think that's everything.

4. (8) 【答案】 stories

【解析】 Attention, please. Boys and girls, we are going to visit the city museum tomorrow. I hope all of you can come. There are lots of interesting things about the cinema and how films are made. We will leave at 7:00 outside the school gate. Don't be late.

The visit starts on the ground floor. You can see the introductions of some old movies. Take as long as you want to look at everything, because we won't come back. Then you'll go upstairs to the first floor. After you arrive at the Inventors of the 20th Century Room, please read the invention stories and look at some modern inventions as well. When you finish, take the lift up to the fourth floor. On the fourth floor, you'll see how films were made fifty years ago. That will be very interesting.

What's next? Oh, yes, the cost. It'll be twenty-five dollars each. You'll need to write things down, so take a pencil and a notebook with you. We'll have lunch in the museum restaurant, so you needn't take any food with you. Well, I think that's everything.

4. (9) 【答案】 how films

【解析】 Attention, please. Boys and girls, we are going to visit the city museum tomorrow. I hope all of you can come. There are lots of interesting things about the cinema and how films are made. We will leave at 7:00 outside the school gate. Don't be late.

The visit starts on the ground floor. You can see the introductions of some old movies. Take as long as you want to look at everything, because we won't come back. Then you'll go upstairs to the first floor. After you arrive at the Inventors of the 20th Century Room, please read the invention stories and look at some modern inventions as well. When you finish, take the lift up to the fourth floor. On the fourth floor, you'll see how films were made fifty years ago. That will be very interesting.

What's next? Oh, yes, the cost. It'll be twenty-five dollars each. You'll need to write things down, so take a pencil and a notebook with you. We'll have lunch in the museum restaurant, so you needn't take any food with you. Well, I think that's everything.

4. (10) 【答案】 25

【解析】 Attention, please. Boys and girls, we are going to visit the city museum tomorrow. I hope all of you can come. There are lots of interesting things about the cinema and how films are made. We will leave at 7:00 outside the school gate. Don't be late.

The visit starts on the ground floor. You can see the introductions of some old movies. Take as long as you want to look at everything, because we won't come back. Then you'll go upstairs to the first floor. After you arrive at the Inventors of the 20th Century Room, please read the invention stories and look at some modern inventions as well. When you finish, take the lift up to the fourth floor. On the fourth floor, you'll see how films were made fifty years ago. That will be very interesting.

What's next? Oh, yes, the cost. It'll be twenty-five dollars each. You'll need to write things down, so take a pencil and a notebook with you. We'll have lunch in the museum restaurant, so you needn't take any food with you. Well, I think that's everything.